

Path

Path, diseñado por Dorigo Design, es el innovador sistema de sofás modulares, formado por cuatro módulos, recto, convexo y cóncavo, que se pueden combinar entre ellos en infinitas posibilidades de composición, para amueblar con creatividad y original libertad cualquier tipo de espacio. La estructura interna en acero dispone de muelles y correas elásticas como garantía de confort y resistencia. Los revestimientos se proponen en piel, ecopiel o tejido, en numerosas paletas cromáticas.
